TO Whom it may concern:

On 11.6.17 I contacted the court regarding case No. 17-CV-191-JDP Byrd-v-Arnez. Stating that I have not received a summary judgment from them and then the defendants lawyers asking for my response. On 11.7.17 at 6pm I received the summary judgment. There must of been some delay in the prisons delivery of my legal mail. However I did receive it and wanted to notify the court of that.

I did also want to address to the court. According to the courts scheduling, the summary judgment is not due til March 9, 2018. Why are the defendants filing so early? I am in the middle of responding to the summary judgment for case No. 17-CV-233-JDP. I feel they maybe trying to overlap the two cases on purpose. How are the defendants able to file summary judgment so early ahead of the courts scheduling docket?

Respectfully,

Lewis E. Byrd
